New NAIC Product-Specific Suitability Training for the Power Select Index Annuities

With several enhancements made to The Power Series of Index Annuities® over the past few years, completion of a new NAIC training module will be required for ALL financial professionals and agents who submit new business applications on and after February 24, 2020.

Any new business applications signed on and after this date for the following products will be considered Not-In-Good-Order (NIGO) if this training has not been completed:

- Power Select Builder 8SM
- Power Select Builder®
- Power Select Plus Income®

We encourage you to complete this training (I5281LS.14) by logging onto Quest CE using the below link and following the site's instructions.

The current NAIC training module will continue to cover new business applications that are signed on or before February 23, 2020.

As a friendly reminder, if a submission received on and after February 24, 2020, is deemed NIGO due to the training not being taken, you will need to: 1) complete the training requirement, 2) obtain a new signature from the client on or after the date training has been completed, and 3) resubmit or re-upload the application to AIG.

Thanks in advance for taking the time to complete this training requirement. We sincerely appreciate your support and the opportunity to continue to earn your business.
