Increasing New Heights Rates on July 20, 2020

Nationwide® is committed to offering competitive rates that enable you to confidently provide clients with retirement solutions that help them protect what matters most. We're happy to announce that we are increasing rates on all of our Nationwide New Heights® fixed indexed annuities effective June 20, 2020.

Important rate lock information:

Nationwide utilizes a systematic 60 calendar day rate lock period. For contracts meeting the below requirements, Nationwide will systematically provide a rate lock for a period of 60 calendar days from application signature date. Any applications signed on or after July 20, 2020 will receive the new strategy option rates.

Paperwork and funds submitted according to the schedule below will receive the greater of the rates available during the 60 days based off application signed date or issue date, as long as the contract is in good order and funded within 60 calendar days from the application date. Otherwise, the contract will receive only the current rates available at the time of issuance.

Step	Required Completion Date
Application / TOA Signed Date	July 19, 2020
Electronic Ticket Submit Date	July 19, 2020
Application / TOA / Electronic Ticket Received Date	July 24, 2020
