FROM ONEAMERICA...

We're excited to announce the launch of a brand-new interactive site designed to attract and educate your customers on the value of long-term care protection from OneAmerica®. This site is designed to allow users to customize their experience and discover how they can protect their retirement with long-term care.

Through a combination of interactive elements, real data and clear language, this new selling tool helps your customers see for themselves how long-term care can protect them, their assets and their loved ones. The site is also designed to be versatile. You can share it with your customer to explore on their own, or you can walk them through it to help them learn more.

Either way, this new tool can help your customers think about retirement in terms that connect with their own lives. Explore the new site today.
